

LETTER FROM J. P. GALLOWAY

To the Democrats of Marion County:

Lacking only 49 votes to give me a clean majority over all opponents in the first primary, I appeal with confidence to the white democrats of Marion county for continued support in the second contest on June 16th. I am deeply grateful for the splendid loyalty and friendly assistance already given me.

I am proud and grateful, above all, that my fight has been conducted throughout by myself and friends in a clean, honest and straightforward manner.

If you wish to know whether I am fitted to give you a clean, decent and efficient administration of the sheriff's office ask the good people of Lake and Sumter counties, whose sheriff I was for twelve years. My record is the best possible argument that you can safely commit to me the important office of sheriff.

Bear in mind that I am under no promise or obligation, except that I do pledge myself to an honest and impartial enforcement of all the laws, regardless of persons or factions.

Pay no attention to reports or charges, like the one circulated universally before the recent election, that, if defeated I intended to run as an independent and receive the negro vote. This was a false and cowardly slander, put forward too late to deny. Its author dares not let himself be known, and has not the courage to make such charge publicly.

If you elect me to this office, you may rely upon my carrying on your business with energy, impartiality, promptness and with strict obedience to the law. My whole time and personal attention shall be devoted to serving you faithfully.

Sincerely yours,
J. P. GALLOWAY.
